Megadroid

THE COOLEST TATTOOS!

Mark yourself out from the crowd with the second set of STC's terrific Tattoo Collection. These specially selected tattoos, hand-crafted by robots, are only available to readers of the U.K's top-selling video game comic. Designed to let you show off that you're an STC Boomer, a Sega player and a major Sonic fan - all in one!

HOW TO USE YOUR STC TATTOOS:-

1. Remove the covering sheet.
2. Select your tattoo and carefully cut it out.
3. Press tattoo face down onto your skin in the desired area of your body.
4. Thoroughly wet the backing sheet with a damp cloth, continually pressing the tattoo in place.
5. Lift a corner of the backing paper to see if the design has transferred to your skin (if not, re-wet the backing paper and press down again).
6. Once the backing paper is removed - you're temporarily Tattooed!
7. Repeat steps 1-6 for each tattoo required.

HOW TO REMOVE:-

Simply wash off with soap and warm water. If the tattoos are allowed to stay on the skin for several days, the use of cold cream or make-up remover will assist removal (warning: use of these last items in public will not help you achieve total coolness!).

PLEASE NOTE:-

These tattoos are safe, non-toxic and easily removed. Real Tattoos are not. They can permanently mark you and lead to skin problems. For this reason, if you like the look of tattoos, stick to removable ones as they're harmless fun.

SPEEDY GONZALES AND THE CHEESE CAT-ASTROPHE

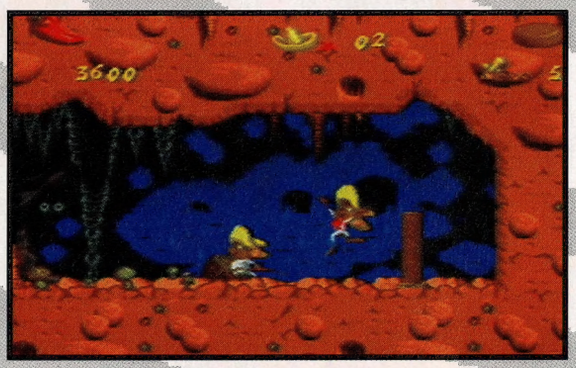
MD
Mega Drive

game type: PLATFORM
1 PLAYER

PRE-RELEASE VERSION REVIEWED

As a fan of the Warner Brothers' cartoons I was happy to get an early look at Sega's forthcoming release, Speedy Gonzales. The point of the game is to guide Senor Speedy through ten zones of mousey mayhem in order to rescue various villagers and his fianceé, Carmel, from the clutches of arch enemy, Sylvester the Cat.

Each zone consists of two levels, ranging from desert flat-land to going underwater to the "Cheesefinger Corporation" factory. The terrain is liberally sprinkled with cartoon character bosses. To complete a level you must find and rescue three mouse villagers as well as gathering carrots as an offering to old Bugs Bunny in exchange for a password. Defeating enemies is done in the time-honoured fashion of bouncing off their heads, or by lobbing a sombrero. Using Speedy's trademark dash allows you to find hidden caverns or to flatten enemies, but to keep this up you must eat plenty of chillies on the way.



Graphically it's all pretty average. The cartoon characters are nicely drawn, but otherwise, you will have seen it all before. The music is lively, but I kept waiting to hear Speedy's anthem, "Arribba, arribba...!" Set at the difficult level, Speedy Gonzales is a good challenge but doesn't add much to the platform format.

Nice as it is to see old favourites like Speedy, Sylvester and Bugs, there isn't much else to set it apart from a host of other similar games. That said, fans of the platform format will find all the essential elements here. - NP

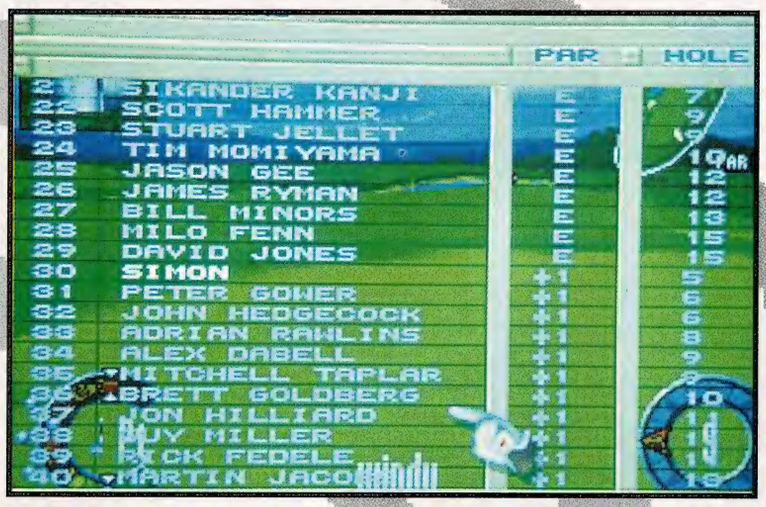
game type: SPORTS

1-4 PLAYERS



Over the years, clever game designers have managed to create fun, playable and addictive golf sims; Leaderboard and PGA Tour Golf to name but two.

Core Design's latest offering is The Scottish Open which has been created in a virtual reality world, where everything operates in real time i.e. you move around the virtual golf courses as if you were in the real world.

The game is viewed through one of three virtual camera angles, and as in any virtual world you can move around e.g. before taking your shot you can zoom into your player, zoom out, and even raise or lower the camera angle. On top of that, once a shot is taken, sit back and watch as the game switches between camera angles to follow the ball's destination. Doesn't sound much but looks impressive!

The Scottish Open features three golf courses apparently designed by a professional golfer and includes the famous Carnouste course - home of the 1995 Scottish Open tournament. There are five play options to choose from including the normal skins challenge where you get to play for money (pity it's not the real thing!). In addition, there's the full blown Scottish Open tournament played over 72 holes with 60 computer golfers and up to four human players. If that wasn't enough there's also the Core Design Challenge to take a swing at. The software publishers are offering a real prize to the first consumer to complete the challenge and send off an entry form. The prize is yet to be decided, but it certainly injects some genuine excitement to the game!

The golfing gameplay is simple. There are no complicated menu's to go through - just point and click and you're away. High quality graphics were designed on a Silicon Graphics Workstation producing smooth animation and clearly defined courses.

If you don't normally like golf, you'll find The Scottish Open an exception. It's great fun especially when playing with friends and who knows, you may even end up winning that mystery prize! - DG.

EARTHWORM JIM SPECIAL Part 1

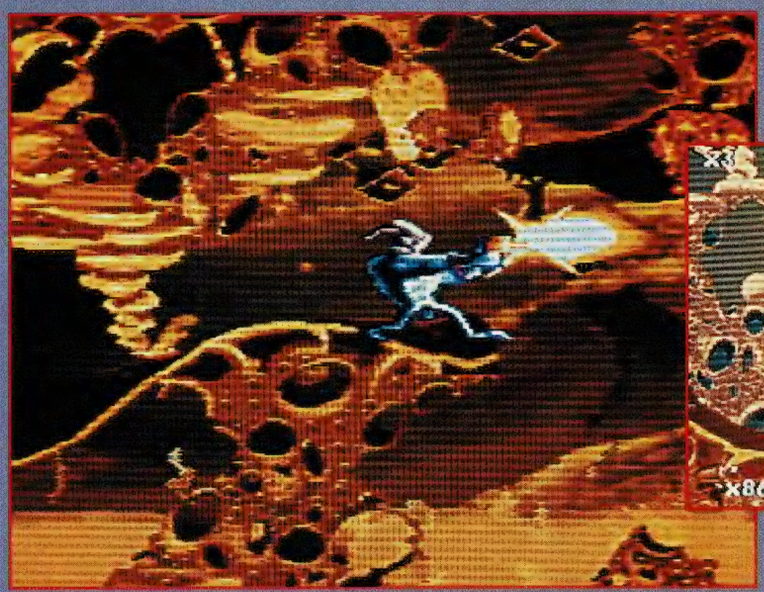
MEGA DRIVE MD

Virgin's slithery release Earthworm Jim caused a stir with it's amusing and innovative gameplay. Fans will squirm with delight as game guru David Gibbon reveals some slippery secrets enabling you to slide through the levels with ease.



LEVEL ONE - NEW JUNK CITY

Head right, stand next to the cow and whip the fridge to launch the cow in the air. Proceed right, up the tyres until you reach the very top platform. Go right, down and right to reach the large conveyor belt. Once up, keep heading right until you finally meet Chuck the Dustbin and you come to the end of the level.

HAZARDS

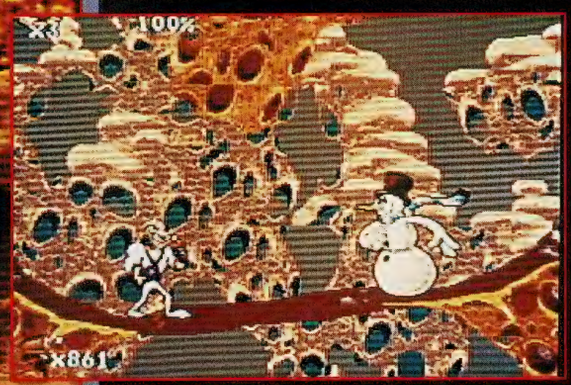
FIFI (The Crazy Dog): Shoot repeatedly at these crazy hounds (yes, there's more than one of her!). They appear at every angle - so beware!

DUSTBIN: Keep on the move to dodge the falling tubas. Repeatedly fire at the bin until it starts to fire anvils. Now, keep firing while dodging the anvils and the bin will charge at you. Jump over the bin, and shoot at it from behind. Repeat to win.

VOMITING CHUCK: Quite a difficult baddy, this. Whip the crates onto the spring on the right to hit Chuck. Once hit, he'll start to vomit fish (charming!). Stand to the right to avoid them. Stand still when you see a tuba coming, then just before it goes directly above you quickly move out of the way. Six crates will get rid of Chuck.

HINT

TOILET: If you fancy a level warp which will carry you to a hidden section with a mass of collectables, then try and find the toilet situated at the very top-left of the level. Flush yourself down the loo and breathe a sigh of relief!

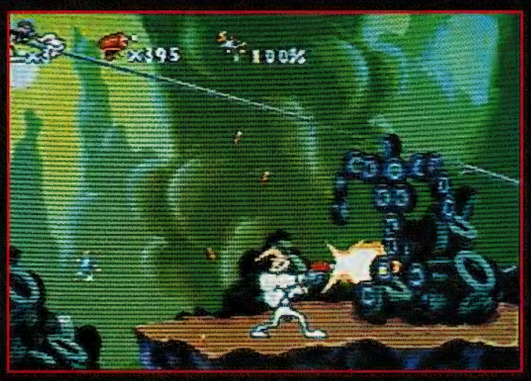


LEVEL TWO - WHAT THE HECK?

This level is extremely difficult, but fingers crossed you'll get through. Just follow the given path and hopefully you'll reach the end. After you've killed two Accountants, get to the very top series of platforms and head right.

HAZARDS

ACCOUNTANTS: Hit the Accountant using your whip, then quickly jump out of the way before he throws his money at you. After you have repeated this several times, use your gun to finish him off. There are two Accountants in this level.



SNOWMAN: Fairly easy this, compared to the rest of the level that is! Keep moving around the screen and as soon as the Snowman appears quickly whip him - otherwise he'll breathe out deadly flames!

EVIL THE CAT: Evil by name, evil by nature! Once you've lost your suit, Evil will fire his cannon. Jump over the flames until the rock on the right has melted. Get back in your suit and jump away from him when his eyes appear, then shoot him with your gun. Jump over the flames coming from either side. Nine times and he'll be no more!

HINTS

GREEN CRYSTALS: The crystals are there to take you to unreachable places. Jump on top and start running in the opposite direction to the way it's turning. Eventually you will start to move - really! Jump off when the crystal stops. If you keep falling off the crystal don't worry as persistence always pays off!

COG WHEELS: Always situated next to an Accountant, hit it with your whip to open a nearby gate.

LEVEL THREE - DOWN THE TUBES

Much easier than the last level, but you still need to stay alert! Just follow the obvious path, take note of the guidelines below and you should be okay.

HAZARDS

CAT MINIONS: The large walking cats that roam the tubes can cause you serious grief. However, there is an easy trick to get past them safely. Wait until he walks in the opposite direction, then go to the next top air bubble. Grab hold and keep your hand on Up until the cat goes past. Then jump down and continue! For the small cats, see Hamsters.

FLOATING PODS: Walk around the tubes slowly, because these are everywhere! A quick blast gets rid of them, no problem.

HINTS

SUBMARINE: The idea is to steer the Submarine to the next landing bay. As you're moving look out for power points sticking out from the sides of walls. You only have a limited supply of air in this craft and the power points increase it. Round two features a large area for the Submarine, so gaining more 'air time' is vital!

HAMSTERS: This really is utterly mad. A Hamster indeed! Nevertheless, they allow you to get past small, vicious cats in the tubes. To do this you need to move a nearby switch with your whip then jump on the back of the Hamster for a ride! Keep pressing B and the Hamster will eat the cats for you!

LEVEL FOUR - SNOT A PROBLEM

The only game I can think of that features a brill bungee jump section. Keep banging into Major Mucas until he falls. Avoid contact with the wall sides as they sap your energy. Warning, don't hit the Major when he is spinning!

This level contains three rounds as shown below:-

ROUND ONE: Simply do the above.

ROUND TWO: Slightly more difficult. Do as before, but keep away from the monster in the slime below. If you get too close, he'll bite your legs off!

ROUND THREE: As round two, but this time the monster awaits directly underneath as you approach him. Press Up and along to stop yourself getting too close to the slime and the monster.

TOP TIPS:

1. Most levels contain flying baddies such as the crows in level one, or the black ghosts in level two. Although shooting is the easiest way to kill them, practice doing it with your whip; one hit will do the trick and it'll also save your precious gun from depleting in power.

2. Try and search every part of each level. Many hidden lives, guns and more are waiting to be collected!

3. Whenever you come to a dead end, always look out for golden hooks nearby. Swing on these using your whip and you'll be fine!

Late Comers!

Dear STC,

I hate to say this but your reviews are printed w-a-a-a-y too late. When you reviewed Urban Strike it probably would have taken less time to enter the Red Zone!

James Turley, Plymouth, Devon. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Point taken Jim, as our technical review circuits were out of whack! However, it's amazing how a twiddle with a few circuits can make all the difference!

Same Gear!

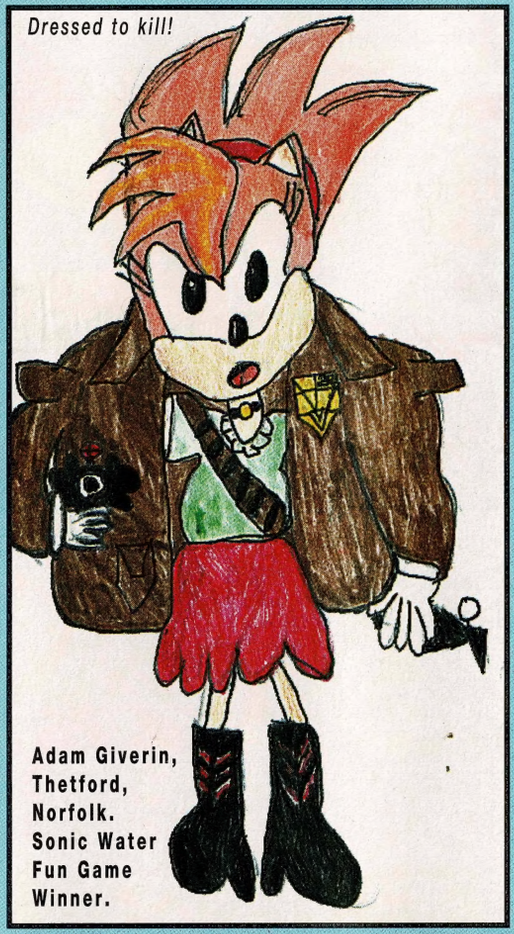
Dear Megadroid,

I've noticed that in the Speedlines section you are normally yellow and black but when you answer Boomers questions you change colour. Why is this?

Richard Harries, Addlestone, Surrey. MD owner. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Gimme a break, Rich, what would you feel like (not to mention smell like) if you wore the same outfit day in day out!

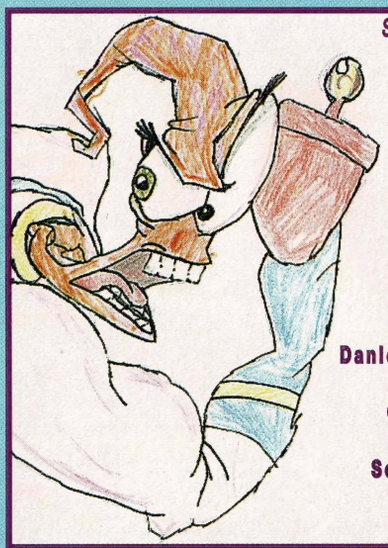
Dressed to kill!



Adam Giverin, Thetford, Norfolk. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Prizes to be despatched within approximately 28 days of publication. If you haven't received your prize after that time, please contact the Tomy Care Line direct on the number listed below.

Say cheese!



Daniel Robson, Stockton, Cleveland. MD owner. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Fowler Play!

Dear STC,

I read a book called 'The Hobbit' by J.R.R. Tolkein and thought it would make a great game. You could play as Gandalf the Wizard or Bilbo the Hobbit and as you go through the levels you'd encounter Trolls, Goblins and Spiders to escape the Elvenking. The ultimate challenge being to defeat Smaug the Dragon and get the treasure. Not bad, eh?

Tom Fowler, Rainham, Essex. MD owner. Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Not content with the book, you now want the game. Do you make a hobbit of this, Tom?
